ORIGIN OF TINTED PAPER.

More novelties are the result of accident than is generally supposed. The origin of blue-tinted paper came about by a mere slip of the hand. William East, an English paper maker once upon a time set his men to work, and went away on business. While the men were at dinner, Mrs. East accidentally let a blue-bag fall into one of the vats of pulp. Alarmed at the occurrence, she determined to say nothing about it. Great was the astonishment of the workmen when they saw the peculiar color of the paper, and great the anger of Mr. East when he returned and found that a whole vat of pulp had been spoiled. After giving the paper made from it warehouse room for four years, Mr. East sent it up to his agent in London, to be sold "for what it would fetch." asid the agent, not understanding the mean-More novelties are the result of accithe agent, not understanding the meaning; "well, it certainly is a novelty, but he must not expect too much." So he sold the whole at a considerable advance upon the market price, and wrote to the mills for as much more as he could get. The surprise of Mr. East may be imagined. He hastened to tell his wife, who found courage to confess her share in the fortunate accident and to claim a reward, which she received in the shape of a new closk. Mr. East kept his secret, and for a short time supplied the market with the novel tint, until the demand far exceeded the supply, and other makers, discovering the means used, competed with him.

Advertising alone does not produce success. The thing which is advertised must have intrinsic merit, or else large advertising will eventually do it more harm than good. If you have anything which you know to be good, advertise it thoroughly, and you will be sure to succeed, it is poor, don't praise it, for people will soon discover you are lying.

Such is the policy of the Burlington Route, which runs to three great regions in the west: left, To Om-ha, connecting with the great Pacific Roads. 2nd, To Lincoln, the capital of Nebraska, and all that beautiful region south of the Platte, filled with R. R. lands and homesteads. 3d, To St. Joseph, Kansas City, and all Kansas points.

The roads are splendidly huilt, have the best bridges, finest cars, the Miller platform and coupler, and the safety art brake to prevent the loss of life that is everywhere else happening). Pullman's sleepers, Pullman dining cars, large and powerful engines ito make quick time and close connections), and are in a word the best equipped roads in the West. So that if von desire to go safely, surely, quickly and comfortably to any point in Southern lows. Nebraska, Kansas, or en the Pacific Roads, be sure you go "By Way of Burlington."

All who wish particular information, and a large map, showing correctly the Great West, and all its railroad connections, can obtain them and any other knowledge, by addressing General Passenger Agent, B. & Mo. R. R. R., Burlington, lows. lows, Sebraska, Kansas, California
